CLA SESSION

THE HEART OF A LEADER

The most persistent barrier to leading like Jesus is a heart motivated by self-interest. Self-serving leaders operate out of pride and fear with an attitude of “give little, take a lot.” Since this condition is more often a blind spot than a conscious choice, we want to help you take a deep, honest look at your heart first. You see, a good diagnosis must precede effective treatment. If we don’t get the heart right, nothing else can turn out right either.

During this session you will:

1. Answer the question many are asking: Why the heart?
2. Understand a clear distinction between healthy and an unhealthy heart.
3. Learn three critical ways leaders diminish their influence.
4. Discover three simple ways to restore your influence and leadership.

This session was designed to provide every leader, regardless of his/her life-role or position, a better understanding of why our heart matters most in our leadership journey, what Jesus, the greatest leader of all time, teaches about the importance of the heart, and how we can practically embrace Jesus' model of leading and influencing others in our day-to-day living.

Leadership starts on the inside...

TAKE YOUR NEXT STEP

Align your Heart, Head, Hands & Habits with the transformative leadership model of Jesus, the greatest Leader of all time.

8 Outcomes You Can Expect:

- Understand how fear and pride affect your leadership
- Discover 10 habits that Jesus practiced to keep you away from distractions
- Learn how to navigate and lead change
- Build God-grounded confidence into your life and leadership
- Learn what it means to use your daily work as worship
- Explore the power-of love-based leadership
- Become a rusted leader
- Understand why and when to "flip" the leadership pyramid upside down

I am convinced that the focus on leadership development is in the wrong place. Most initiatives focus on competencies, skill development and techniques, which in some ways is like rearranging the deck chairs on a sinking ship. Good leaders need to become masters of themselves before they can be master of anything else.
